

Indane Gas

News Corner

Indane has launched an 'emergency Service Cell' for its customers in Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh which will render its uninterrupted services on 24X7 pattern. Senior Area Manager of Indane gas P C Katkar said consumer will have to call on 18602332222 and call centre personnel will note the details of the complaint or service required and guide the customers with necessary safety precaution immediately for leakage till the mechanic reaches the site.

The forum found the Gas agency guilty of harassing the consumer and not giving her LPG supply for over one month period on one pretext and other.

The complainant, Kailash Rani alleged that the Gas Agency deliberately harassed her as her son had raised his voice against the illegalities being committed by the Gas Agencies and the black-marketing of the highly subsidized LPG.

Haryana Chief Parliamentary Secretary, Anita Yadav today ordered to seal Karan Gas Agency of Kalanwali in district Sirsa.

Indane gas customers will have to wait for up to 45 days for a refill after the last supply because of a huge backlog of cylinders.

A statement from the All India Indane Distributors Association on Saturday said that LPG backlog in some parts of the state will reduce considerably in a couple of weeks.

The collector Bhopal fined two gas agencies Rs 50,000 each for illegal sale of gas cylinders and black marketing. Three persons were injured in an LPG gas blast in Nerul.
